The Honor System.

The question involved in the honor system as applied to college examinations is not whether or not some take advantage of the removal of espionage to cheat, but whether young men of the age of the average college junior are not wise enough to their own real interests to exand on their honest merits in the test. If they are not, they will find some way to cheat despite the strictest watching. If they are, the sooner the honor system is adopted the better.—New Haven Register.

Malt Whiskey Has Prolonged His Life Five Years. It Relieved and Strengthened Him When Nothing Else Did Him Any Good.

"I have been taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for six or seven years for Bronchitis, which I have had for about twelve years. Before this I tried doctors and everything else, but nothing did me any good. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey was recommended to me, as it would benefit me and would build up my whole body and system. I com-menced taking it and found that it did me more good than all the medicines I had taken in the past.

"I think Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey the best thing that a man can take to build himself up and prolong his life, as I am in my seventyeighth year and had I not taken Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey six or seven years ago I believe I should have been in the ground five years I find it is the most invigorating medicine I can take, and I

As the result of a scrap in the Irwin house shortly after midnight Thursday, commenced in the hallway of the house and finished on the sidewelk, three fellows were in police court Friday morning. Frank Dion was simply charged with being drunk and was fined and dismissed. Peter Racine and Joseph St. Lawrence were the others to feel the weight of the hw. Because of lack of witnesses to the fight their cases was continued until Saturday morning. Racine was released on bail. Mrs. Eugene Squires, who looks out for the domestic part of the house, was in court and testified that one of the fellows hit her and knocked her down, but she could not state which one for a certainty. A number of guests of the house were mixed up in the affray and not a little broken glass was strewn around the hallway and the walk. Several witnesses will be summoned to court today, when in all probability the case will be cleaned up. 27 in. FLOUNCING, $1.50 yard.

out of polities, but he will be faithful to those who have been faithful to him. In a despatch from Shellal, Egypt, which The Record-Herald printed on Monday, Walter Wellman said: "Another thing that may be regarded as certain is that the former president will soon be able to learn the true inwardness of the Pinchot episode, and that should he find him to be in the right, he will stand by his friend."

His intense interest in the episode is now indicated by the fact that he has sent for Pinchot and that the latter has started to meet him in Europe. The two men have been in such close accord that there is not likely to be any break in their friendship, and it would not be surprising if their meeting should have a political significance of critical importance.—Chicaleance of critical importance.—Chica-
